COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

Title	Summary Description	Contact Information
City of Shelter - A Coordinated Community Response to Domestic Violence	An 8 1/2 hour, 11 part video-based training series on coordinated community response to domestic violence. CITY OF SHELTER includes interviews with the nation's leaders in the field of domestic violence: Lt. Mark Wynn, Dr. Evan Stark, Sarah Buel, Dr. Jacquelyn Campbell, James Hardeman, Judge Ronald Adrine, Alexandria Ruden, and Pulitzer Prize-winning author, Richard Rhodes are a few of the professionals in the documentary who present a comprehensive view of what it takes to develop a coordinated community response to domestic violence. Domestic violence issues, frustrations, procedures, and dangers are presented through the day-to-day experiences of police chiefs, patrol officers, detectives, prosecutors, judges, victim advocates, shelter directors, batterer intervention specialists, victims, batterers, court watch volunteers, doctors, nurses and clergy. The training series, by award-winning producers Joey Easton O'Donnell and Patrick O'Donnell, took over three years to complete. Part 1 - Starfish (41 min.) Part 2 - House of Horrors: The Psychology of Domestic Violence (61 min.) Part 3 - Herding Cats: Beginning A Coordinated Community Response (48 min.) Part 4A - The Health Care Response (30 min.) Part 4B - The Law Enforcement Response (76 min.) Part 4C - The Shelter/ Advocate Response (41 min.) Part 4D - The Prosecutors' Response (56 min.) Part 4E - The Judicial Response (45 min.) Part 4F - The Batterers' Intervention Response and Other Professionals (20 min.) Part 5 - Coordinating Councils Mature (42 min.) Part 6 - City of Shelter (33 min.) An excellent tool for any new community response team or existing teams needing a little rejuvenation! Ideally the videos should be shown over a period of time allowing for processing in between the segments. The different parts can be used to identify the unique aspects of collaboration, the delicate dynamics of coordinated community response teams in domestic violence situations, and/or to identify and acknowledge what the other "players" on the team are doing or not doing. While the laws and statistics mentioned in the videos pertain to Ohio, the basic principles and lessons are still the same. Proper training would require the facilitators to investigate and prepare the applicable state laws and community statistics.	Dr. Patrick O'Donnell Global Village Communications Phone: 937-848-6199 www.cityofshelter.org Email: odonnell@donet.com © 2000

The Quiet Storm Project - Annie's Journey 50 minutes	The QUIET Storm Project focuses on the prevention of relationship violence for youth (ages 25 and under). The project is designed for students in grades 5 through 12 and for students who are in college. The video addresses the problem of domestic violence at the beginning - when people start getting into relationships. The project integrates easily into lesson plans and can be used as a stand-alone domestic violence prevention learning module or it can integrate into an existing domestic violence prevention curriculum. The QUIET Storm Project contains: multiple professionally produced film modules (approximately 45 minutes per module); a measurement tool to measure the impact of the project; an integrated web site where information and resources can be found; a comprehensive step-by-step written Instructor's Guide and attachments. [Please note: Due to time constraints, The QUIET Storm - Annie's Journey film segment is only able to present a heterosexual, male on female case of abuse. However the written instructor guide addresses and discusses that domestic violence effects ALL racial, economic and religious segments of our society; that domestic violence occurs in same sex relationships; and that female on male abuse does occur.] The Partnerships for The QUIET Storm Project began in May of 1996 when development began for the script of The QUIET Storm - Annie's Journey. In order to accomplish our goal of ending relationship violence, a multi-dimensional collaboration was formed in the spring of 1998. The collaboration consists of 6 non-profit domestic violence organizations located in Minnesota. Each organization brings a variety of expertise and knowledge that will ensure the success of The QUIET Storm Project.	These organizations are: The Central Minnesota Task Force On Battered Women http://www.annamaries.org, Domestic Abuse Project http://www.mndap.org, Alexandra House Inc. http://www.alexandrahouse.org, Casa de Esperanza, Inc. http://www.casadeesperanza.org, Women's Advocates Inc. http://www.wadvocates.org, and Harriet Tubman Center http://www.harriettubman.org. Strong at the Broken Places - Turning Trauma into Recovery	This video is about people, devastated by trauma and loss, who find common ground for their journeys to recovery. A film that was directly inspired by “Defending Our Lives,” this is the story of vastly different lives. The death camps of Cambodia, the violent streets of South Boston, the amputee ward of a V.A. hospital and the prison cell of an alcohol and drug addicted inmate yield remarkable survivors, all of whom heal themselves by helping others. The stories are both inspirational and instructional, helping to infuse the word “hero” with new meaning for our daily lives.	Cambridge Documentary Films.
