

High School Aged Children

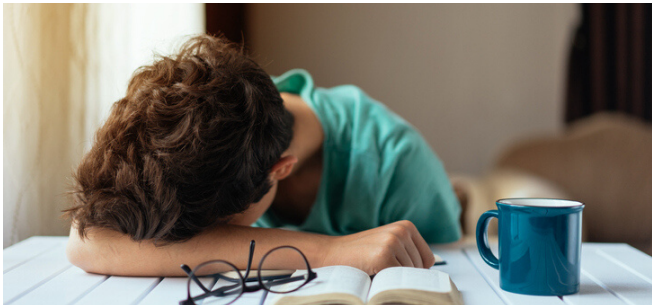

Here are some ideas of things to do while visiting with your child remotely.

Create a book club
together

Create a vision board and share it with each other

Have a list of things your child can do if they are bored at home

Find a new hobby to learn
together

If your child is worried about the virus, reassure them that professionals are working all over the country to solve the problem.