

LAW ENFORCEMENT FAMILIES PARTNERSHIP

Internet Resources

Display this list of websites in your resource library so employees can have easy access to helpful information.

Battered Women's Justice Project

This program offers training, technical assistance, and consultation on the most promising practices of the criminal and civil justice systems in addressing domestic violence. This project also provides effective analyses and information on effective policing and monitoring of domestic violence offenders.

<http://www.bwjp.org/default.aspx>

Central Florida Police Stress Unit is a non-profit organization not affiliated with any law enforcement agency or police department, dedicated to providing a confidential response to law officers struggling with many ethical and personal issues. There is a free 24-hour phone line available as well as other helpful methods to reduce stress.

<http://www.policestress.org/>

Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence

This organization works toward ending domestic violence through public awareness, policy development, creation of standards, provision of funding, and support for Florida's domestic violence centers.

<http://www.fcadv.org/>

Florida Coalition Against Sexual Violence

FCASV is a statewide nonprofit organization committed to victims and survivors of sexual violence and the sexual assault crisis programs who serve them.

<http://www.fcasv.org/>

The Florida Department of Health- Sexual Violence Prevention Program (SVPP)

This program aims to prevent rape and sexual violence through education, awareness, and support. SVPP offers several online resources for men, women, and children.

<http://www.doh.state.fl.us/Family/svpp/index.html>

National Mental Health Information Center provides signs and symptoms of anxiety due to crisis. This website also provides a brief list of what to do if these symptoms persist.

<http://mentalhealth.samhsa.gov/cmhs/managinganxiety/reducinganxiety.asp>

LAW ENFORCEMENT FAMILIES PARTNERSHIP

Internet Resources (Continued)

International Association of Chiefs of Police

The IACP is the world's oldest and largest nonprofit membership organization of police executives, with over 20,000 members in 89 different countries. Their mission is to advance professional police services; promote enhanced administrative, technical, and operational police practices; foster cooperation and the exchange of information and experience among police leaders and police organizations of recognized professional and technical standing throughout the world.

<http://www.theiacp.org/>

The International Critical Incident Stress Foundation, Inc. (ICISF) is a non-profit organization devoted to education, training and support services for all Emergency Services professions. ICISF has several workshops offered each year nationally as well as the ability to present locally in Florida.

<http://www.icisf.org>

National Coalition Against Domestic Violence

This website provides several resources to help prevent domestic violence. The site also offers several fact sheets of national and state data concerning instances of domestic violence as well as many other resources including articles and other media.

<http://www.ncadv.org/>

The National Domestic Violence Hotline

This website provides information to those who think they may be victims of domestic violence as well as those who think they could or may be abusing someone they know. A 24 hour confidential hotline number is provided as well as several online, print, and media resources.

<http://www.ndvh.org/>

National Sexual Violence Resource Center

The National Sexual Violence Resource Center serves as the nation's principle information and resource center regarding all aspects of sexual violence. It provides national leadership, consultation and technical assistance by generating and facilitating the development and flow of information on sexual violence intervention and prevention strategies. The NSVRC works to address the causes and impact of sexual violence through collaboration, prevention efforts and the distribution of resources.

<http://www.nsvrc.org/>

