Additional Comments by Supervised Visitation Programs that Provided Information

Valerie Tolentino (Family Ties) – Parties must be court ordered from Orange County. Supervised visitations are conducted at Cherokee Elementary School. Exchanges can take place either at Cherokee School, Family Ties office at the Courthouse, or Orange County Jail locations; all depend on the order. Administrative functions take place at the Families Ties office (located at the Courthouse) during the work week.

Janene Bussell (Kids in Distress) – The parenting program is not offered as a direct part of the Visitation Program, but many clients with open dependency cases are enrolled in both programs and the programs coordinate services and provide feedback to one another.

Manuela Moeller (Lutheran Services) – We deal directly with DCF. Parents get counseling through other programs.

Gail Tunnock (Children's Advocacy Center of Collier County) – Our visitation program does not provide parenting programs however, our agency does provide the Nurturing Parenting program. We often assist families with exchanges in working out schedules when the court orders are non-specific especially in DV injunction cases before there are formal parenting plans in place.

Tom Barr (Valued Visits Supervised Visitation and Monitored Exchange Program) – CASTLE's mission statement is "preventing Child Abuse and Neglect through Education and Awareness". Other Programs CASTLE offers and that the Valued Visits Program has access to: Safe Families Program - An in-home program that offers parent education and support for families with minor children. Families First Program - A five hour educational class for parents who are divorcing; to learn how to eliminate emotional trauma to their children. Positive Parenting - Classes where parents learn new parenting skills to help them raise their children in a healthy, positive manner. High Hopes for Kids - Groups for children who are experiencing the emotional consequences of their parent's divorce and separation. Strengthening Families - Parents and children come together in a group setting to resolve family issues, in this family skills training program.

Jackie Dalton (Children's Visitation Center for Families with Domestic Violence) – The cases at the Children's Visitation Center for Families with Domestic Violence are court ordered cases through Osceola County only.

Stephanie Centella (Pasco Counseling and Visitation) – This program provides Coping with Crying Classes (Shaken Baby), as well as the "Love and Logic" parenting curriculum.

Sheila Miller (Children and Families Supervised Visitation) – We will be adding a 'neutral drop-off/pick up' service in the near future.

Linda Davis – I do off site visits and have a few other supervisors that I use. They are all independent contractors. There are several programs that we recommend to people, but we do not provide any.

Trish Waterman- Although we do not provide parenting programs, we do provide an advocate for domestic violence petitioners involved with the CJC's Supervised Visitation Program.

Mark Roseman (Toby Center) – Please share findings. Also, encourage collaborations. The Toby Center was conceived as a multi services agency. I am glad that there is an understanding of why this concept is a likely key to family healing and improved outcomes for children.

Terri Williamson, LMHC –Terri specifically provides therapeutic supervised visitation, parenting evaluations, bonding assessments of the parent/child bond and the sibling bond, and individual and family therapy.

(Lawson E Thomas Courthouse Center – Family Court) -- The Lawson E. Thomas Courthouse Center Family Court is a multi-service program including co-parenting, time-sharing and parenting plans, alienation/reunification, parenting coordination, and referrals to community providers.

Kelly Shelton, LCSW- Kelly Shelton also offers parenting coordination.

Herve Preval, LMHC – Preval and Associates Counseling Services offers supervised visitation, therapeutic supervised visitation, individual counseling, adoption home studies, and clinical supervision for RMHCI. Accepted insurance plans include Aetna, Cigna, TriCare, and Multiplan.

Kimberly Stratton, LMHC (Family Visitation Center of Suwannee Valley- Lake City)- This program provides visitation services as well as counseling services. They provide counseling services through Mid-Florida Community Counseling-Children's Home Society.

Anetra McClain, M.S. (Life Management Center- Panama City)- This visitation program provides Therapeutic visitation with a contracted therapist in the Life Management Center agency. They also provide a parenting plan called Systematic Training for Effective Parenting (STEP) where parents have the opportunity to go through modules and implement in the visit what they have learned. This program also has a sign in/ out sheet for transportation and the parents have phone check in which is separate. They do not come in or leave through the same entrance and the exchange is monitored closely so they are not meeting in the hallways before and after visits.

Kids Bridge Family Supervised Visitation Center- This visitation program offers a wide variety of services to the families it works with. In addition to the services mentioned above, they also offer monitored phone calls, off-site visits, and healing arts. They offer the following programs: Batters' Intervention (Project Change for Men, and Project Promise for Women), Divorce Stabilization Class for Children (Kids Bridging Divorce), Bridging Into Parenthood (Common Sense Parenting Class), and Bridging Anger (Anger Management Class).

Charity Williams, Beyond Barriers Inc.- This visitation program offers anger management and mental health counseling in addition to supervised visitation services.

Jessica Lassiter, USF Infant-Family Center- This visitation program offers parenting training and therapeutic visitation.
